Programs for Adults—Free! MAY / JUNE 2013

Research the History of Your House

Mon., May 6th 7:00-8:00pm
2nd floor in the Local History Center

Learn about the tools you can use, such as our photograph database, newspapers, books and other materials, to research the history of your house. Sign up early, as space is limited! Call (714) 288-2465 or email history@cityoforange.org .

Basic Computer Skills

Wed., May 8th 10:30am-Noon
Taft Branch Library Computer area
740 E. Taft Ave.
Orange 92865
(714) 288-2430

If you have no experience with computers, this is the class for you! Learn how to set up email and more. Seating is limited so call Taft Library to register.

Taught by Santa Ana College MESA students. Funded by California Connects.

Conversation Club: Practice Your English

(Second Monday of every month)

Mondays: May 13th, Jun. 10th
Rotary Room 6:30-7:30pm

Are you learning to speak English and would like to improve? Meet with other members of the international community for casual conversations.

Booktalk

All The Buzz About Books!

Mondays: May 20th, Jun. 24th
Community Room 7:00-8:00pm

Join us for great discussions about books. It's YOUR book club, so you decide what to read!

Monday Mysteries Book Club

Rotary Room 2:00-3:00pm

Mon., May 20th
Gone Girl
By Gillian Flynn
The disappearance of a woman on her 5th wedding anniversary starts this mystery, with twists and turns that lead to a shocking conclusion.

Mon., Jun. 24th
The Blackhouse
By Peter May
When two deaths occur in a short period, Edinburgh detective Fin Macleod is dispatched to the remote Isle of Lewis, to see if the murders are connected..

Drumming Circle

Monday, Jun. 17th, 6:30-8:00pm
Community Room

Join us for this fun entry-level learning experience and enjoy the spontaneous creation of music on a variety of drums and percussion instruments. A facilitated drum circle promotes a safe, stress free and entertaining environment to empower participants. Drums will be provided or you can bring your own.

Summer Reading Club for Adults

(SRCA) Adults 18 and over

Mon., Jun. 17th – Sat., July 27th
"Reading is SO Delicious!"

Sign up, read, and you're automatically entered into a drawing for prizes!

Special thanks to SRCA sponsors: the Friends of the Orange Public Library, Orange Public Library Foundation, local businesses and organizations.

In Service to the Mouse!

Meet Disney legend, Jack Lindquist

Sat., Jun. 22nd 2:00-3:00pm
Community Room

Jack Lindquist's memoir, In Service to the Mouse: My Unexpected Journey to becoming Disneyland's First President, is a fascinating look behind the scenes from someone who has been there from the very beginning. Come hear some amazing stories, and pick up a free copy of the book!

All programs @ the Orange Public Library & History Center unless noted otherwise
407 E. Chapman Ave. – Orange, CA 92866 – (714)288-2410 – www.cityoforange.org/library

City of Orange

Orange Public Library