

DENIS BILODEAU

Councilmember

Term: 2006-2010

Denis Bilodeau was elected to serve as a Councilmember in the City of Orange in November 2006, where he resides with his wife Suzanne, Daughters Lia, Simone and son Robert. Denis was first elected to public office as a Director of the Orange County Water District in November 2000. He was reelected in 2004 and served as President of the Board from 2002 to 2004.

Professionally, Director Bilodeau is a licensed Civil and Traffic Engineer. He serves as a project manager for a transportation engineering, planning and management firm in Irvine, California.

Director Bilodeau holds a bachelor's degree from the University of California, Irvine in Civil Engineering.