FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – January 7, 2015

HELP NEEDED TO IDENTIFY BURGLARY SUSPECT

On Tuesday, January 6, 2015, unknown suspects committed a residential burglary in the City of Orange. During the burglary, the suspects stole credit cards belonging to the victims. The stolen credit cards were used to make purchases at the Walmart, which is located at 2300 N. Tustin. During the crime at Walmart, the two suspects that used the stolen credit cards were captured on video surveillance. Suspect-1 is described as a male/White in his 20's, thin build, short brown or red hair with long sideburns. Suspect-2 is described as a female/White in her 20's, thin build with medium length dark hair. They were seen driving a dark blue SUV with a tan lower strip similar to an Isuzu Trooper. It is unknown if the suspects that used the stolen credit cards also committed the residential burglary.

Anyone with information about the identity of either suspect is asked to call the Orange Police Department at 714-744-7444.
